Police Record Check

It is a requirement of AMHA that all volunteers, holding a position of trust and authority with the possibility of contact with children, must be screened by means of a Police Record Check (PRC). It is the responsibility of the coach to ensure he / she obtains a PRC for all coaching staff on his / her team as well as any volunteers that may assist.

The blank PRC will be provided to all coaches by AMHA or is accessible on line at www.aylmerflames.com

The PRC is to be delivered to your local police service (Town of Aylmer if living in Aylmer or the OPP if living in Malahide Township). Once completed the coach is responsible to pick up completed PRC and submit it in a sealed envelope to a member of AMHA executive with PRC or Police Check clearly written on the front of the envelope.

A PRC is required every year from all volunteers holding a position of trust and authority with the possibility of contact with children

Every volunteer is obliged to inform the AMHA Executive if he or she is charged, tried, or convicted of any offence under the Criminal Code of Canada or other federal statute.

The following criteria MAY result in a "FAIL" rating:

Criminal Code convictions or charges pending for the following offences:

- Sexual Assault or child abuse offences
- Indictable criminal offences of any kind.
- Current prohibitions or probation orders forbidding the individual to have contact with children under the age of 16.

Applicants may also be rejected as a result of other information gained during the screening process, or as a consequence of other factors. It is the AMHA executives who will review questionable PRC's and decide on suitability. This decision can be appealed in writing to the general membership through the Grievance committee. The AMHA general membership's decision is final.

AMHA may also solicit additional applicants after the closing date to fill any vacant positions.
